

Jain21 @ 15th JAINA Convention 2009

Why? Forget the JAIN events you've heard of or attended in the past. Jain21 is about single, smart, attractive Jain men and women who haven't yet found themselves in the right place at the right time. If you've got any interest in searching for "The One," you can let it be painful or choose to be playful.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS: (for Jain21 Participants ONLY)

Icebreakers - Dating War Stories, Dating Scavenger Hunt

Gone in 60 Seconds! Speed Dating

Dress to Impress Harbor Cruise

Midnight Pool and Pajama Parties

Disco Dandiya & Bollywood Bhangra

A little about those of us who are running the show: we are all young, hip, well-adjusted Jains who recognize from personal experience how tough it can be these days to be single. We suspect that there is a better way to meet people than at parties, clubs, or meat-markets masquerading as networking organizations and so we are taking it upon ourselves to corral all you cool people and facilitate that process.

WE PROMISE, EVEN IF YOU DON'T FIND FIREWORKS, YOU'LL FIND FRIENDS....

Who? - YOU, of course!!! Come join your fellow Jain singles, ages 21-40, as we gather in sunny Los Angeles for a 4-day celebration of commonality.

What? Jain21 is a networking forum for Jain adults from all over the world that presents opportunities to build a unique network of friends that could potentially lead into a life long relationship. This forum is specifically dedicated to the Jain singles between the age group of 21 and 40 years.
